Integrating Medical Treatment with Whole-Person Care

Combining advanced oncology treatments with integrative therapies to support both body and mind

Cancer care is not only about treating the disease, it's about caring for the person

Supporting your healing journey with Integrative Cancer Care

We combine advanced oncology treatments with evidence-based integrative therapies to support patients physically, emotionally, and mentally.

Our approach focuses on:

-  Supporting the body during treatment
 -  Reducing side effects and improving recovery
 -  Enhancing emotional and mental well-being

We collaborate with integrative and naturopathic clinics in Alberta to provide:

-  Continuity of care across your treatment journey
-  Ongoing naturopathic support
-  Direct communication between your Canadian providers and our medical team
